The Elegant Beauty of Sacred Ceremony

This summer the church was festooned with flowers for some glorious and joyous weddings. Many services were conducted by the Chair and chief minister of Barnes Healing Church - Rev Verity Jones. Being an interfaith minister enables Verity to carry out ceremonies for people from a wide range of faiths. The church is also a favourite choice for baby naming and blessing ceremonies, including a Buddhist service, which was conducted by the principal of the Interfaith Foundation.

WORKSHOPS CONTINUE TO BE A MASSIVE SUCCESS

The Church has run workshops for a number of years and they have flourished. Recently some workshops sold out. We don't ask for payment in advance, but some people book and don't turn up. This is unfair to those that are turned away who would have attended. We may well have to ask for a deposit in advance for our workshops, which are some of the best and most competitively priced in London. Listings below:

AVRIL PRICE

BRINGING INSPIRATION INTO THE CHURCH: MEET RITA GREEN

Rita Green is often to be seen at Barnes Healing Church. She is a talented and charming medium and runs excellent open circles on the first and third Fridays of every month. She is also a director of Barnes Healing Church.

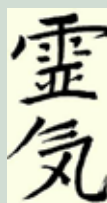

Rita told us "I came to Barnes after visiting a number of local churches, I got on particularly well with Sue Hendy and we started the mid-week series of services, about three years ago."

Beyond the Church Rita is tremendously busy; she has many passions - art, golf and the more than occasional game of bridge. She often visits Holland to see her son and his Dutch wife and her granddaughters. Rita also has two daughters living in Eastbourne. "My greatest success" she claims " - Is the introduction of the Christmas Service." More news of that in our next newsletter. ◆

REIKI PROVES POWERFUL AND POPULAR

Reiki is an increasingly popular Energy Healing System. By placing ones hands on a person, Reiki flows out through the palms. Torsten Alexander Lange's courses have been a big success. The next one is scheduled for 6 & 7th of November. Call Torsen on 020 8948 0440 or visit www.reiki-in-london.com
